...and now, the computer lab then...

Dean McGavran (center, in hat) oversaw the groundbreaking for Rosenau Hall.

Thanks to donors, students have high-tech comfortable spaces in which to work and relax.

The school becomes a four-building complex with the addition of the Michael Hooker Research Center.

Students used microscopes in parasitology class.

Dr. Steve Meshnick oversees the lab work of a student.

...and now, standing room only at the Friday Center.

Eleanor Roosevelt visited a health education class. New York Mayor Michael Bloomberg greeted Dean Barbara Rimer at UNC's commencement.

Students used books, notebooks and blackboards and sat in chairs attached to desks.

A few HPM undergraduates