Overview

Experience Gillings allows MPH admitted students an opportunity to learn more about the program, the School, the University, and life in Chapel Hill. You will meet and network with faculty, staff, current students, and your future classmates. We are excited to welcome you to campus to learn more about what makes UNC Gillings the #1 public School of Public Health.

10:45 am – 11:30 am
Registration
Armfield Atrium, Michael Hooker Research Center

11:30 am – 12:30 pm
Welcome & Program Overview
Joan Heckler Gillings Auditorium (Rosenau 133)

- Johnston King, MAEd
  o Enrollment Management Coordinator
- Barbara K. Rimer, DrPH
  o Dean and Alumni Distinguished Professor
- Kauline Cipriani, PhD
  o Assistant Dean for Inclusive Excellence
- Laura Linnan, ScD
  o Senior Associate Dean, Academic and Student Affairs
- Meg Landfried, MPH
  o Assistant Professor
- Karla Townley-Tilson, MBA
  o Coordinator for Residential MPH

12:30 pm – 2:30 pm
Department Sessions and Lunch

Department Sessions provide you with the opportunity to meet with faculty, staff, and current students. Through a combination of formal presentations and informal conversations, you will learn in depth program information, opportunities to collaborate with faculty and classmates. We hope that you take the time to ask all of your questions.

Lunch will be provided during your concentration session.

- Applied Epidemiology: 2301 McGavran-Greenberg
- Environmental Health Solutions: 101 Rosenau
- Global Health: 2306 McGavran-Greenberg
- Health Behavior: 133 Rosenau
- Health Equity: 230 Rosenau
- Health Policy: 2005 Michael Hooker Research Center
- Leadership in Practice: 1303 McGavran-Greenberg
- Maternal & Child Health: 3005 Michael Hooker Research Center
- Nutrition: 2308 McGavran-Greenberg
- Population Health: 1302 McGavran-Greenberg
Experience Gillings MPH Admitted Student Day
A Program for Admitted MPH Students
Friday, April 5, 2019

12:30 pm – 1:30 pm  Supporting Your Graduate Student
Blue Cross Blue Shield Auditorium (Michael Hooker Research Center 0001)

Guests of prospective students are invited to join us for an informal panel discussion on how to support your graduate student.

Lunch will be provided during this session

2:00 pm – 3:00 pm  Tour of the Gillings School of Global Public Health Facilities
Depart from Armfield Atrium, Michael Hooker Research Center

2:30 pm – 3:30 pm  “Living in Chapel Hill” Information Table, Office of Student Affairs Staff, and Graduate Resources Reception

University offices will be available to provide information and answer questions on how to make the transition to life in Chapel Hill.

3:45 pm – 5:00 pm  Meet and Greet
Top of the Hill Back Bar
100 East Franklin Street, 3rd Floor
Chapel Hill, NC 27514

Follow Columbia St to near the intersection of Columbia St and Franklin St. The entrance to Back Bar will be on your right on Columbia St. See map.