Experience Gillings Admitted Student Day
A Program for Admitted Doctoral and Master’s (non-MPH) Students
Friday, March 29, 2019

Overview
Experience Gillings allows admitted students an opportunity to learn more about the program, the School, the University, and life in Chapel Hill. You will meet and network with faculty, staff, current students, and your future classmates. We are excited to welcome you to campus to learn more about what makes UNC Gillings the #1 public School of Public Health.

10:45 am – 11:30 am  Registration
Armfield Atrium, Michael Hooker Research Center

11:30 am – 12:30 pm  Welcome & Program Overview
Joan Heckler Gillings Auditorium (Rosenau 133)

- Johnston King, MAEd
  - Enrollment Management Coordinator
- Barbara K. Rimer, DrPH
  - Dean and Alumni Distinguished Professor
- Julie MacMillan, MPH
  - Managing Director of Research, Innovation and Global Solutions
- Christin Daniels, MA
  - Senior Director of Research and Innovation
- Mya Roberson, MSPH
  - Doctoral Student in Epidemiology
- Charletta Sims Evans, MEd
  - Associate Dean for Student Affairs

12:30 pm – 2:30 pm  Department Sessions and Lunch

Department Sessions provide you with the opportunity to meet with faculty, staff, and current students. Through a combination of formal presentations and informal conversations, you will learn in depth program information, opportunities to collaborate with faculty and classmates. We hope that you take the time to ask all of your questions.

Lunch will be provided during your concentration session.

Biostatistics
230 Rosenau

Environmental Sciences and Engineering
101 Rosenau

Epidemiology
2308 McGavran-Greenberg

Health Behavior
2005 Michael Hooker Research Center

Health Policy and Management
2306 McGavran-Greenberg

Maternal and Child Health
3005 Michael Hooker Research Center

Nutrition
235 Rosenau Hall
Experience Gillings Admitted Student Day
A Program for Admitted Doctoral and Master’s (non-MPH) Students
Friday, March 29, 2019

12:30 pm – 1:30 pm  Supporting Your Graduate Student
Rosenau 133

Guests of prospective students are invited to join us for an informal panel discussion on how to support your graduate student.

Lunch will be provided during this session

2:00 pm – 3:00 pm  Tour of the Gillings School of Global Public Health Facilities
Depart from Armfield Atrium, Michael Hooker Research Center

2:30 pm – 4:00 pm  “Living in Chapel Hill” Information Table, Office of Student Affairs Staff, and Graduate Resources Reception

University offices will be available to provide information and answer questions on how to make the transition to life in Chapel Hill.