BIOS 842 Practice in Statistical Consulting
Sample of Project Agencies

BIOS 842 PRACTICE IN STATISTICAL CONSULTING (3). Under the supervision of a faculty member, the student interacts with research workers in the health sciences, learning to abstract the statistical aspects of substantive problems, to provide appropriate technical assistance, and to communicate statistical results. Fall, spring, and summer.

To obtain an MPH or DrPH in Biostatistics, a student must enroll in BIOS 842 Practice in Statistical Consulting.

Below is a sample of agencies that recent students have interacted with in BIOS 842.

Centers for AIDS Research
Network of Integrated Clinical Systems
Clinical Research Collaboration Network (CRCN) – Bangkok, Thailand
Merck
Novartis
University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill
   Biometric Consulting Laboratory
   Carolina Population Center
   Center for Health Promotion and Disease Prevention
   Collaborative Studies Coordinating Center
Department of Biostatistics – Gillings School of Global Public Health
Department of Health Policy and Management – Gillings School of Global Public Health
School of Medicine
School of Nursing
US Environmental Protection Agency