

Fall 2016 Gillings Professional Development Workshop Series

Developing Your Strengths

September 30th, 1pm-2:30pm, 2308 MCG

Our talents and strengths can be applied in many areas, including learning, academics, leadership, service, and careers. The StrengthsFinder assessment will allow you to identify your greatest talents, gain insight into how to develop and enhance your strengths, and learn how to apply them optimally by establishing good habits as a graduate student. Registrants will need to take the StrengthsFinder assessment and bring their printed results to this workshop.

REGISTER HERE: <http://tinyurl.com/j7be4tv>

Networking and LinkedIn

October 10th, 1pm-2:30pm, 2308 MCG

This workshop will provide you with new ways to think about and market your skills using the professional social networking site, LinkedIn. By leveraging LinkedIn, you'll discover ways to make connections, gather industry information, find hidden opportunities and demonstrate your knowledge. We will discuss how to best utilize LinkedIn to help you achieve your job search or networking goals. Bring your laptop to get started and explore possible connections.

Please note that this workshop will be recorded and/or made available via synchronous live broadcast

REGISTER HERE: <http://tinyurl.com/hvmr3vg>

Resume Rescue/Job Search Consults

October, 26, 27, & 28: 11:30am-1:30pm, Atrium

Bring your career-related questions OR your resume/CV to these short consults with employers, public health professionals, and/or career services staff. Advanced sign up outside 263 Rosenau or drop in during the event.

Personal & Professional Values Clarification

November 4, 1pm-2:30pm, 2308 MCG

Discovering and clarifying your values can help provide a focus for academic, career, and life decisions. This is an interactive workshop designed to help you identify and clarify the core values and principles that often underlie your choices. In addition, you will gain insight into the following questions: What kind of working conditions will be rewarding for me? What level of responsibility can I handle? What salary level is important for me to attain? How do values relate to my goals and future choices? Plus, learn how to evaluate a job offer utilizing values parameters, and gain insight into an online resource that correlates work values to job titles.

REGISTER HERE: <http://tinyurl.com/hwbuzv8>

All workshops are provided at no cost to current registered degree and certificate SPH students.