November 3 | 2:00 PM | Rosenau 230

Highlighted indicates action item

1. Check in with students/departments a. Several students have asked about more recycling bins around Gillings, especially in high volume areas such as by Rosenau 133
    b. Department reps – email students in next week or so and see if there is anything going on that they want addressed
        i. Send back reports by Thanksgiving ii. If you're sending info about events to a listserv, copy Katherine iii. Adante will make google form for easy way to anonymously submit comments 2. Hunger lunches
    a. Last two have been successful – ran out of food at both
    b. 80 people served at first but didn't take a count for the second so remember this next time 3. Vaccine trivia night – this coming Monday! 7-9 a. Katherine will send out flyer for distribution
    b. Need volunteers (don't have to stay whole time) – form will go out with flyers to sign up for blocks of time
    c. Pharmacy is taking care of everything, we just show up
    d. Wear shirts
4. Blood drive
    a. Just got word from Red Cross that sponsor pulled out… so not happening this semester
    b. BUT we will be helping with Red Cross blood drive in January which is not sponsored so shouldn't have this problem
        i. Partnering with UNC red cross club ii. We are responsible for publicity and maybe flyers, also possible volunteering for check in etc.
        iii. More info in January 5. Meetings
    a. Not yet scheduled for the spring
    b. This is last fall meeting
    c. After registration period closes, there will be a doodle poll to find the best time for the most people i. Try to stick with Friday afternoons but don't know yet ii. Hopefully before winter break we will have schedule set for all of spring
    d. There may be additional short non-mandatory meetings since spring is a lot more busy 6. National public health week
    a. If you want to be part of planning, we will be meeting with institute of public health this month so speak up now 7. Thanksgiving
    a. Let people know UNC does host Thanksgiving dinner for people wo are not going home. FREE!
8. T shirts

a. Still have a couple left – pick up if you haven't already