

January 17, 2017

Public Notice of Opportunity for Comments
Regarding the Gillings School of Global Public Health to the Council on Education for Public Health (CEPH)

This notice serves to inform all students, alumni, faculty, staff, community partners, members of the general public and all stakeholders at the UNC Gillings School that the Council on Education for Public Health (CEPH) will conduct a site visit at the School on April 17-19, 2017. The visit is part of a multi-year process by which the Gillings School of Global Public Health and other schools and programs of public health earn CEPH reaccreditation.

OPPORTUNITY FOR THIRD-PARTY COMMENTS

All those officially notified here are invited to provide written comments prior to March 16, 2017 (30 days before the site visit). CEPH requests that all submitted comments be in writing and contain specific observations. Written third-party comments will remain confidential and can be sent to CEPH, as follows:

VIA E-MAIL: Ms. Alisha O’Connell (aoconnell@ceph.org)

VIA U.S. MAIL

Ms. Alisha O’Connell
Council on Education for Public Health (CEPH)
1010 Wayne Avenue, Suite 220
Silver Spring, Maryland 20910-5660

Written comments will complement the many materials submitted to CEPH by the Gillings School, including a self-study document.

Should you have questions about the process, please contact Dr. Laura Linnan, associate dean for academic and student affairs at the Gillings School, who chairs the reaccreditation committee. Linnan is reachable at 919.843.8044 or linnan@email.unc.edu.

Thank you for taking time to comment.