Kenan Institute Asia Summer 2019 Internship

Position Title: NextGen Healthy Aging Intern

Number of Internships: 2 Master of Public Health students

Description
Kenan Institute Asia is looking for high-impact, innovative interns to join their staff to support its work and mission during the summer 2019. The intern will provide support for Kenan’s work in the NextGen Healthy Aging Society project. This will include studying and identifying the best practices of the Healthy Aging society project, developing beneficiary impact stories, and providing recommendations based on international best practices on ways to scale up and improve the interventions. The interns will conduct secondary research, project observation, surveys and key informants’ interviews. A main focus of the intern will be analyzing and identifying services and products Kenan can sell based on work done though the Healthy Aging Project. The intern will have the opportunity to take on additional special projects and tasks as part of a committed and passionate team of professionals. Students interested in the fields of business and public health are encouraged to apply.

Location: Bangkok, Thailand

Internship Program Components
• 40 total paid hours of work per week, minimum of 200 hours completed during internship period
• Internship officially begins May 27, 2019 and concludes August 2, 2019
• Airfare, accommodations, stipend and insurance (medical and emergency evacuation services covered) included

Primary Duties & Responsibilities
• Complete a Learning Agreement with internship preceptor and student faculty advisor before beginning of internship
  o Agreement will specify the specific products to be produced by the interns
• Review of secondary materials
• Project observation and informant interviews
• Draft report including market needs and development trends
• Develop recommendations for products and services Kenan can sell
• Final Presentation
• Summarize lessons learned and intern experience
• Final report including - Revised information from draft report

Qualifications
• Currently enrolled UNC Gillings MPH student
• Proficient in Microsoft Office Suite (Word, Excel and PowerPoint)
• High-impact self-starter and detail-oriented
• Strong written and verbal communication skills
• Research experience
• Demonstrated ability to multitask and meet numerous deadlines simultaneously
• Ability to learn quickly and adapt to changing and unpredictable situations
• Comfortable working independently and as part of a team
• Creative, passionate and hardworking
• Experience working in diverse settings

To Apply
By February 8, 2019, send cover letter, resume, two short writing samples or PowerPoint presentations, and one faculty letter of recommendation to:

Richard Bernard, Executive Director, Kenan Institute Asia
c/o Claire Bond
claireb@kenan-asia.org