

MILESTONES IN THE LIFE OF A MASTER'S (MPH or MSPH*) STUDENT

[NOTE: "Submission" refers to submission to the EPID Student Services Office]

Enrollment at UNC's Department of Epidemiology ☺

Satisfactory completion of course requirements

- EPID 700 or BIOS 511 or PUBH 741/2
- EPID 705
- EPID 710 or 711
- EPID 715
- EPID 716
- EPID 718
- Substantive EPID course one
- Substantive EPID course two (MPH students may also select from: EPID 805 and 806 or EPID 733)
- BIOS 600, 550, or PUBH 741
- BIOS 545, 663, or PUBH 742
- ENVR 600 or approved alternative
- HBHE 600 or approved alternative
- HPA 600 or approved alternative

Master's Comprehensive Exam

Master's Practicum

- Completion of online form, both pre- and post-activity
- Obtain IRB approval
- Registration for EPID 900
- Submission of practicum proposal
- Submission of practicum evaluation
- Submission of practicum preceptor's evaluation
- Submission of grading form to academic advisor

Completion of 42 credit hours

Master's Paper

- IRB approval and submission of Verification of IRB Compliance form
- Announce presentation via epidsems listserv
- Presentation and submission of Master's Paper Oral Presentation form
- Registration for EPID 992 – 3 credits – at time of paper submission
- Submission of Report of Approved Substitute for Master's Paper
- Submission of approved Master's Paper to Student Services Office (properly bound, of course, and following sample title page ☺)

Be sure to apply for graduation - we'll miss you! ☹

*Most MSPH students will be completing some of their PhD requirements during the Master's phase.