Current student issues this semester

- Advising concerns
- Funding for child care and food
- Anxiety and stress
- Pregnancy/work life balance
- Honor code violations
- Loss of a loved one
- Serious injuries due to accidents
- Serious medical conditions
- Verbally aggressive and hostile interactions
- Sexual assault
- Student fatalities
School Resources

Early Intervention
• Navigating Student Concerns
• Early Intervention Network
• Strengths Finder for doctoral students
• First Generation Graduate Student Initiatives
• Student Emergency Fund
  – Contributions are welcomed via SPH Advancement site

Prevention
• Professional development opportunities
• Chat with the Deans
  – First live chat this fall
• Student Feedback Form
• Lactation room
University Resources

• Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS)

• Accessibly Resources and Services
  – Long term and temporary support

• Dean of Students
  – Care Team
  – Case management
  – Student Emergency Fund
  – Critical Incident Team (CIRT)
  – De-Stress with the Dean
  – Financial Literacy Classes
  – Green Zone (military)

• Graduate School
  – Student counseling and advisement
  – Professional development opportunities
  – Diversity and Student Success Initiatives for Minority Excellence (Focus on URM doctoral students in STEM, SBE, Humanities & Fine Arts)

• Child care scholarship program

• Carolina Recovery Program

• New meditation/prayer room in Fed/Ex Building
Strategies for Success

• Encourage students to seek help and suggest resources

• Be supportive and understanding

• Interventions take time and a “village”

• Don’t make promises we can’t keep

• Open communication within the School