General Information

We invite you to join us for this 38th annual event, which will include plenary sessions, breakout workshops and a keynote address. The 2023 North Carolina School Nurse Conference is a wonderful professional development opportunity for nurses to explore new ideas, share lessons learned and network with others from across the state!

Every year, new and returning school nurses attend the conference to participate in innovative sessions and networking opportunities. The theme for this year's conference is "Growing Our Foundational Roots and Reaching for the Sky."

This is the largest conference targeted to school nurses in North Carolina with total anticipated attendance of more than 600 participants.

About the Conference Providers

This conference is jointly provided by the Whole Child Health Section of the North Carolina Division of Child and Family Well-Being and the North Carolina Institute for Public Health at the UNC Gillings School of Global Public Health.

This year's conference is supported through a contract to the N.C. Institute for Public Health from the NC Department of Public Instruction and NC Division of Child and Family Well-Being as part of the American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA) investment in North Carolina's public health workforce funding to the NC Division of Public Health.

The Public Health Nursing Institute for Continuing Excellence is approved as a provider of nursing continuing professional development by the North Carolina Nurses Association, an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.
